

Software Development

LADDERS

Name of Speaker: Andreas Firnigl

Company (representative of): Nosebleed Interactive

Website: www.nosebleedinteractive.com

NOSEBLEED
INTERACTIVE

Background:

Andreas has been in the games industry for over 15 years. Starting in QA and then moving into senior design roles he eventually set up Nosebleed Interactive 6 years ago. Their current game Vostok Inc. just released on Nintendo Switch, PC, PS4, Xbox One, Android TV and PS Vita to overwhelmingly positive reviews.

The Business/Company:

Nosebleed Interactive is a multi-award-winning game development studio. Named as one of the Top 50 creative companies in the country, and have worked with some of the world's biggest content providers such as Sony Interactive Entertainment and on brands such as Star Trek.

They have won several awards including best small to medium business in the Newcastle Business Awards. Alongside this we were among the first companies to receive support from the prestigious UK Games Fund

Andreas's presentation will concentrate on:

- My career history in university and games
- How I set up NB and what we've done
- CV tips – Don't need to include EVERYTHING
- Networking advice
- The need for portfolio work _ Best pieces, again not everything

For this speaker book your place here: Ladders Creative & Digital Careers Day 27th March